Love is in the air

Love is in the Air is a fresh take on a classic story, exploring fighting forces that seem impossible to conquer. From Shakespeare's Romeo and Juliet and Broadway's West Side Story to Bollywood's Josh, the tension of forbidden love has caused thrill and heartbreak through the ages.

Continuing the company's established work with a male-dominated cast, Love is in the Air is an innovative piece combining film, aerial work and live music with the traditions of Bharatanatyam.

With choreography by 2006 Place Prize winner Nina Rajarani MBE, and a magnetic live score created by composer and vocalist Y Yadavan, Love is in the Air is a collaboration with aerial specialists Scarabeus. The piece tackles the topical issue of gangs in the UK while celebrating the loyalty and solidarity shared by friendship groups.

"The most testosterone-infused Bharatanatyam I have seen."

The Guardian

"The final memory I'll take away from this night of energy, passion and conflict is the telling sound of feet landing on the floor, cracking like gunshots."
